Dear Mr Bowen

Although I have not heard of the destiny of my last letter for your paper, I venture to send another of Mr Stoddard, hoping both will please you enough for publication.

Have you had the Mergesons yet - Mr M O Dunham has sprung a trap upon us, we did not know it was published till we saw the notice in the Tribune. I wish you would have a review and a notice in the Independent - I have been surprised more than once to learn that my last letter for you have reached readers, where things in other quarters have not -

Very respectfully

Elizabeth Stoddard
